

MathsNET
A joined up approach to teaching and learning mathematics

Calculating a histogram

- By making reference to the law of large numbers explain why the histogram converges onto a single function when a large number of experiments are performed.